Plantation, FL March 26th, 2020 - Joseph Laguerre announces the publication of his first collection of dramatic stories, Crucial Moments In Life. This collection tells the stories of character choices made in the midst of some difficult circumstances. It will be available October 1st, 2020 at Smashwords.com for $2.

Crucial Moments In Life steps into the lives of those in the middle of significant periods of their life. The five stories are unrelated but connected in that these people all find something important about themselves and the people they care about. Here is a glimpse.

"Finish What You Start" is a serious flash fiction drama about a young man, Nathan, tasked with fulfilling a promise to his father. He runs into cross-country truck driver, Wesley, who aids his quest to the Grand Canyon. With Wesley's help, he realizes something about himself and the relationship with his father.

"Faith" is a serious family drama about Katerina, devout Christian mom, whose husband is in a coma. In a hotel room Katerina's son, Anthony, meets her to discuss pulling the plug.

"Reflections" is a serious young adult drama about Lucas, a high school senior, whose dream is to go to school to be a writer. His father, Dan, is a business professional who disapproves.

"Just Coffee" is a serious adult drama about a debt negotiator, Joseph, and his legal assistant friend, Brooke. Joseph and Brooke had a falling out and they've been set up by their mutual friend Charlotte. At a Starbucks, forced to deal with each other, is an opportunity to reconcile.

"The Concert" is a serious crime drama about Serina, a former art student, who has a crisis of faith about her nefarious life choices. After her transporter friend Richard leaves, she stumbles upon a piece that reminds her of another life. Sitting alone in her office, she decides whether she wants to continue this lifestyle

Joseph Laguerre is a screenwriter who plans to work on television dramas. He is currently obtaining his BFA in Creative Writing for Entertainment from Full Sail University. Located below is a link to his LinkedIn profile.
